Odyssey Aviation supports Ride for Hope for the eighth year

Nassau, The Bahamas (August 13, 2013) – Ride for Hope organizers visited Odyssey Aviation to show their appreciation and thanks for their continued support in the Ride for Hope. This will be the eighth consecutive year that Odyssey Aviation has participated. Odyssey Aviation is one of the founding Corporate Sponsors of the Ride for Hope event.

The Ride for Hope is a registered charity. Its flagship event is a fund raising bike-a-thon held each spring in The Bahamas. Participants have called the Ride for Hope "a truly inspiring weekend." Every dollar raised by participants without exception is applied to the improvement of programs for cancer treatment and patient care.

"We are proud to be able to give back to the community on many different levels," says Steven Kelly, principal of Odyssey Aviation. "Through our support and that of other good corporate citizens, we are pleased to know that every single penny raised by the participants of the event goes to cancer care, prevention and support. This cause touches so many of us."
